

Dateline: May 14, 1913
Source: Glen Rock Observer

GLEN ROCK WILL HAVE SHOW

At the meeting of the Glen Rock Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock Association, which was held last evening at the home of Mr. H. N. Bennett, in Harristown Road, the organization determined to give a "show" in Smith-Singer Hall on December 4th, 5th and 6th. The members expect to have at least three hundred entries. Poultry, pigeons and pet stock of all kinds will be eligible to compete for prizes in the many classes. The Premium Committee, Messrs. George Ruckstuhl, William Van den Mass, of Midland Park, and C. E. Phillips, will begin at once to arrange for the competitions and prizes. The premium list will be announced as soon as practicable, and the members of the club will work hard from now until December to make Glen Rock's first "show" a great success. All folks who are interested in poultry, or pigeons, or pet stock of any kind, should get into touch with the Club and help in its work.